Unsung heroes of freedom struggle.

Hon'ble Prime Minister of India

As we all know that India got independence after many sacrifices. In the line of these sacrifices along with well-known names like Gandhi, Nehru, name of hundreds of unsung heroes also come, whose sacrifices are not even mentioned anywhere. While celebrating 'AZADI', I appreciate the effort of the govt. to find such unsung heroes. I request you that the heroic stories of these unsung heroes should be honoured.

The Honorable Prime Minister

Shri Narendra Modi Ji

As we all know that by 2047 India celebrate its 100 years of independence. I want my India in 2047, to be creative, educated, prosper and developed. I want that there should be a proper use of technology and resources we have. I want a country where unemployment should not be there. People should earn with the help of their education and creative mind. We should have creative India in 2047, where the art of creativity should be there. There should be proper and effective administration system so that inferior should get proper justice. At last we should have Green India with Clean Mind #Nale

Honorable Prime Minister of India

Topic - Unsung heroes of Freedom struggle
(Udham Singh)

He (Udham Singh) was a freedom fighter who was not much known to everyone. He was a good friend with Bhagat Singh. He was sent to London for motivation of Indian people of being power to fight against the Britishers of kick them out of India and to stop them killing Indian. But later when he was caught, was sentenced to death & was being hanged. But he was very helpful to his country equally to the others. Yours Truly
Naman Singh

By 2047, I want to see my India freedom from poverty, unemployment, corruption and other social evils. There should be no gap b/w rich & poor. Poor children should get an education. India should continue to be the land of peace & prosperity. The entire world respects & recognized the strength of India. In India of vision where women are educated. My vision for India 2047 is to make women powerful. My India by 2047 will be a healthy environment country with minimum pollution. There will be no shortage of food grains in India in 2047 & will not die of malnutrition & starvation. Violence will have no place in my India of 2047. MANAV DHARMA will be followed by every person in India in 2047.

MY VISION OF INDIA IN 2047
